Last month's John Anderson benefit concert has reported this year's net draw, which will end up helping eight East Pasco charities.

Organizer Ron Oakley said the Sept. 15 event pulled in a net amount of a little more than $60,000, allowing him to personally hand out a $6,500 check to each of the receiving charities.

These included: Bayfront Health Dade City Scholarship Fund, Dade City Kiwanis Foundation, Florida Hospital Zephyrhills Heart Institute, Sunrise of Pasco County, The Thomas Promise Foundation, Lewis Abraham Boys and Girls Club of Lacoochee, Humane Society of Pasco County, and Restored Hope.

Commission Snuffs Medical Pot Shops City Moratorium On Dispensaries Approved For A Year

by Joe Potter

A temporary 12-month moratorium on medical marijuana dispensaries was unanimously approved on Tuesday by city commissioners.

No one spoke during a public hearing held before the vote was taken and the ordinance was effective immediately.

The action was taken as a preemptive measure in case Amendment 2 is adopted on Election Day.

Amendment 2 requires approval by 60 percent of the voters to become law. An earlier attempt to pass a medical marijuana amendment failed in 2014, gaining support from 57 percent of voters.

Amendment 2 is a proposed law that would authorize the use of medical marijuana for 10 specific debilitating conditions: cancer, epilepsy, glaucoma, HIV, AIDS, post-traumatic stress disorder, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), Chron's disease, Parkinson's disease and multiple sclerosis.

Candidates Make One Last Pitch

Monday Forum Featured Hopefuls For County Posts

Staff Report

Local candidates on the Nov. 8 ballot tried to reach voters one more time Monday night during a candidate forum hosted by the Chambers of Commerce of Dade City and Zephyrhills.

The forum was held at the East Pasco Adventist Academy in Dade City, and opened with County Commission candidates Dimitri Delgado, Ronnie Oakley, Kathryn Starkey and Barry Horvath fielding questions about managing growth in east Pasco County and other issues.

Next on the hot seat was Property Appraiser candidate Gary Joiner. The Republican candidate flew solo as his Democratic opponent John Larkin did not attend.

The odd responses came from Clerk of David West, Coordinator stands at the podium to introduce candidates Dimitri Delgado, Ron Oakley, Kathryn Starkey and Barry Horvath at a forum held at East Pasco Adventist Academy on Monday.

Pasco County Superintendent of Schools Kurt Browning took a step back Saturday night to continue to serve as the president of the Pasco High School Class of 1976.

At the annual Pasco High Reunion of the Decades, Browning and his classmates from the Bicentennial Class organized this year's event at Lake Jovita Golf and Country Club that raises funds for the Pasco Education

Trying To Get Some Points For Her Sister

Crystal Marie Wynn, 34, of Webster, was arrested by Dade City police on Oct. 9 on charges of driving while license suspended or revoked with knowledge and providing false name to law enforcement. Police were conducting a lawful traffic stop on a white van for not having working brake lights. The driver provided the name and date of birth for her sister, Dawn Wynn. A records check revealed that the personal information provided did not match the driver. The driver was then detained until proper identification of Crystal Wynn was determined. A records check revealed that her license was suspended on June 1, 2015, for failure to pay financial responsibilities, and that she was listed as a habitual traffic offender on April 22, 2013. Post Miranda, Wynn told the officer she was scared and did not know why she gave her sister's name. Wynn was released with a notice to appear.

Deniese Barbara Piper, 57, of 37041 Main Ave., was arrested by Dade City police on Oct. 15 on a charge of domestic battery. Piper was involved in a verbal argument with the victim because he reportedly would not buy her more alcohol. The victim stated that Piper becomes violent when she drinks. Piper reportedly became upset and started slapping and punching the victim several times on his upper body. Piper and the victim have lived together as boyfriend and girlfriend for 10 years. The victim told police he is afraid to go asleep around her. No injuries were noted. Piper was taken to the Pasco County Jail.

William Ray Lumpkin, 27, of 29747 Darby Road, was arrested by Dade City police on Oct. 14 on two Hernando County warrants for failure to appear – possession of marijuana over 20 grams and failure to appear – possession of paraphernalia. Contact was made with Lumpkin when he was the passenger in a vehicle during a traffic stop. After the warrants were confirmed, he was taken to the Pasco County Jail.

William Jacob Merritt, 35, of Spring Hill, was arrested by Dade City police on Oct. 13 on a charge of petit retail theft. Merritt was at Walmart, 12650 U.S. 301, when a store employee observed him opening two packages inside the store and concealing the property, valued at $45.84, on his person. Merritt then reportedly exited the store without paying for the items. A store employee stopped him in the parking lot. Post Miranda, Merritt said he was taking the items to see if they would work in his car. He was taken to the Pasco County Jail.

Angel Jowna Williams, 40, of 37134 Goldenrod Court, was arrested by Dade City police on Oct. 16 on a charge of retail petit theft. Williams was at Walmart, 12650 U.S. 301, when loss prevention witnessed her concealing curtains and food items in her purse. She then passed all points of sale without paying for the items valued at $45.98. Loss prevention stopped her and held her until police arrived. Post Miranda, Williams did admit to shoplifting the items. She was released with a notice to appear. While investigating this theft, loss prevention advised Williams was involved in a retail theft on Sept. 9 but was not caught or arrested for stealing items valued at $130.09. Williams did admit to taking items on Sept. 9 and recalled the items she took which matched the store's record.

Robert W. Kibler, 26, of 4843 Fifth St., Zephyrhills, was arrested by Dade City police on Oct. 14 on an active Hernando County warrant for violation of probation – contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Kibler was taken to the Pasco County Jail upon confirmation of the warrant.

Dean had a suspended drivers license and was on felony probation. Officers also located several subjects in the vehicle with warrants and drug paraphernalia. Dean was arrested under an active Pasco County warrant for violation of probation – counterfeit payment and taken to the Pasco County Jail.

Robert Kovach III, 36, of 16531 Powerline Road, was arrested by Dade City police on Oct. 14 for violation of probation – battery. Kovach was the passenger in a vehicle during a traffic stop. After confirmation of the Pasco County warrant, Kovach was taken to the Pasco County Jail.

Audience Appreciates 'On The Move' Program

by Keri McAlpine

The Dade City Symphony welcomed more than 400 people at their first concert of the season last Saturday. The group of nearly 40 musicians played lively tunes in a performance titled "On the Move," held at Pasco Middle School.

The big band, Latin, patriotic, cartoon and soundtrack songs were all named after some form of dancing, marching or choreography.

Kathy McKenzie, violinist and president of the symphony, said the fall concert was a success.

"Everything went smooth and we had a great audience," she said. "We really appreciate that. We're glad so many people came out to support it."

McKenzie said the performance resonated with the crowd because the symphony plays such an array of pieces that there's something for everybody. From her conversations with concertgoers, people really seemed to enjoy "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy," "Danzas Cubanas," and a tune from Disney's Aladdin.

The symphony's next performance will be their Christmas concert on Dec. 17, also to be held at Pasco Middle School, with doors opening at 6:30 p.m., and the concert starting at 7 p.m.

McKenzie said the symphony is still in need of string players who are able to keep up with the group. Christmas music is some of the easiest to learn, she said, so it could be a good opportunity for a rusty musician to get back in the game. Even if someone is unsure if they're at a high enough level, McKenzie said to contact the symphony at dadecitysymphony@yahoo.com to discuss. Visit dadecitysymphony.com for upcoming concerts and information.

First Things First

This Week Has Been Chamber Of Commerce Weather

Last Friday sometime before the start of high school football under the lights the temperatures started to drop and the wind started blowing. Before the game it was sweltering as I watched the snow cone people set up their tent. They were hoping to sell a bunch of snow cones to benefit the reading department at the high school. This is probably the first time this season that I saw the football blow off the tee before the kickoff to start the game. This is also the first time this year that the pressbox was actually under 100 degrees. We are thankful for the free sauna time that we get. It helps to offset all the food that we can consume during each and every game.

What a wonderful time of year with the temperatures dropping and the humidity coming into a range that makes breathing a little bit easier, the skies a little bit more blue, the sunsets even more spectacular and it even seems like the trees are saying thanks for the break from the brutally hot summer that we have had this year. Of course there are always some with an opposing view. We went out on Sunday for breakfast after church and one guy who just got down from Canada was complaining that they didn't come to Florida to be cold. He heard us talking about how awesome the lower temperatures were. Oh, he had shorts on with knee-high white socks and flip flops. I think he thought that no one would know that he was not a local. All kidding aside, maybe that is the new style. Fashion can change pretty quickly and I really haven't kept up with all of the new trends.

This is also a time of year when it makes walking more fun. It is a great way to help keep fit and you never know who or what you are going to see while you stroll around listening to your favorite tunes or gossiping with a friend. In my neighborhood there is a group of women that are out walking before the sun comes up. I have to be extra careful backing out of my driveway because my old truck doesn't have all those warning sounds or cameras to let you know that a problem is about to happen. I have had a close call with them before.

This would also be a good time of year to make sure your heater is working and to check the chimney to make sure that some creatures haven't set up living quarters in what they were hoping was a safe place. I fired up my electric heat to check it out and it smelled like the place was on fire or something was burning. I knew it would happen but I love to watch my wife's expression each and every year when I test it out after almost a year of not being used.

There is lot's going on in East Pasco County this time of year. The Greater Zephyrhills Chamber of Commerce, Greater Dade City Chamber of Commerce and Main Street Zephyrhills are good places to check to see what's happening. Also, upcoming events are in our weekly newspapers and online. You can now pull up the Dade City News, Zephyrhills Free Press and East Pasco Senior News on a computer, smart phone or a tablet and also see archived editions all the way back to day one. Go to www.pasconewspublications.com and check it out. The great thing about that and thanks to our advertisers it's free and as the saying goes, "If it's free it's for me." Have a nice week.

Letter To The Editor...

Cutting 'Has Axe To Grind'

Dear Editor,

I attended the recent candidates forum sponsored by the Dade City and Zephyrhills Chambers of Commerce. I observed Roberta Cutting, candidate for Clerk of Court, as she kept repeating her point of waste and fraud in the clerk's office. If she is so interested in the clerk's office saving money why has she sought 185 or so record searches trying to find an error she can use for dirt in her campaign and filed frivolous lawsuits against Paula O'Neil and her staff? This action cost staff time and lawyer fees.

I believe she has an "axe to grind" and as a taxpayer I find this appalling.

Sincerely,
Diane E. Jones
San Antonio

The executive board and board of directors serve three calendar-year terms starting Jan. 1.

After the installation ceremony, outgoing DCCC President Randy Stovall, presented the 2016 President's Award to Mayor Camille Hernandez. Stovall praised her commitment to Dade City and the mayor's continued support of the Chamber's mission to promote economic development and quality of life. The annual President's Award is based upon who the current president feels is a deserving citizen who has contributed to the community.

"I have witnessed our mayor working many days, evenings, and weekends in this effort," Stovall said during the presentation. "It is clear that her motivation is simply to do something good for Dade City. I have learned from, and benefited from, working with this dedicated person, as has our chamber."

During the breakfast it was announced that the date for the annual Chamber banquet would be moved from its usual October date to June 8.

Executive director John Moors said the Chamber's three person staff is often overwhelmed this time of year, and decided to move the banquet to a date to a time with less conflicting events.

"We found we had too many events crammed into a short period of time," Moors said. The Nov. 10 Business Expo has become more popular and will require more attention, as well as the chamber's annual golf tournament and the year-long planning required for the Kumquat Festival in January, he said.

Moors said he can't know for sure, but that he feels more people will be able to attend a summer banquet, when less is going on around town.

However, he said the chamber is willing to sell tickets in early Spring before the banquet to account for depreciated funds of small businesses during the summer months.

"If it doesn't work then we can adjust it again," Moors said of the change. "But, I think it would be a good way to boost attendance."

“It’s rewarding to be able to be here 40 years after I graduated,” said Altman, who served on Pasco High’s student council. “To be assisting my alma mater is an honor.

“To see the support from the community when we sold ads for the program was amazing. As soon as I told them it was for scholarships, everyone I asked was on board.”

Applefield, Shanon Holm and Gary "Buck" Joiner wrapped things up introducing themselves to voters.

"There was some good information, some good questions," said John Moors, director of the Dade City Chamber, noting that the event was well attended. "Our committee did a great job of keeping it right on time."

David West, the Public Policy Chairman of the Greater Dade City Chamber of Commerce, served as the master of ceremonies. Zephyrhills Free Press columnist Dave Walters joined Tampa Bay Times columnist C.T. Bowen and Lutz/Laker News reporter Kathy Steele in serving as moderators.

Diane Smith and Jeanette "Jet" Hall were recently inducted into membership in the Sunrise Rotary Club of Dade City.

Smith retired from the Pasco County Tax Collector's office after 30 years as the real estate manager. She has been married for 44 years to Mike Smith. They have three beautiful daughters who all live out of state and two grandchildren.

Hall is a Master Gardener, volunteers for Shoes 4 School and is married to Keith. The Community Magazine, LLC, is her passion at the moment. Community Magazine is an upscale glossy direct mail magazine to Pasco and Hernando counties.

The state legislature might regulate where the dispensaries can be located should Amendment 2 pass, City Attorney Karla S. Owens said. In that case, local municipalities might not need to be involved, she added.

Dade City needs to have the moratorium until the legislature makes its decision on how to regulate where the dispensaries can be located, Owens said. She added that the legislature might not act on the issue until late in the 2017 session, which begins March 7 and ends May 5.

In other business Tuesday:

Joseph DeBono was introduced as the new public works director and acting city engineer. DeBono fills the slot recently vacated by Gordon Onderdonk who is now county engineer for Hernando County.

Impact fees of $1,761 were waived for a .05-acre parcel on Fifth Street that the Rotary Club of Dade City plans to develop as a community garden and park. The city also agreed to pay the monthly water bill for the garden that will be developed there. Jeanie Germain, Jack Thies and Randy Bush informed commissioners that Donald Ray Polk had donated the property. The property is currently titled in Germain's name but will be transferred to the Rotary Club after the club is able to obtain insurance coverage on the property.

Commissioners agreed to schedule a public hearing for Nov. 8 for a proposed text amendment to the comprehensive plan. If the amendment were approved, it would eliminate some zoning districts and replace them with other zoning districts. Also, multi-family dwelling units and apartments would be permitted in the GC (General Commercial) Future Land Use Management category.

Also approved Tuesday night was a three-year contract with Towne Computers to provide information technology services for the city.

The $6,500 check was raised at the John Anderson benefit concert and will go towards nursing scholarships at Pasco Hernando State College.

A $1,000 check was also granted to the Pasco County Sheriff's Mounted Posse for their help working the event and serving the prime rib dinner.

Representatives from each charity gathered at the noon meeting of the Dade City Kiwanis Club on Tuesday. The Humane Society was unable to attend, however Deirdre Oakley received their check on the organization's behalf.

This year was a step forward for Oakley's fourth round hosting the Anderson concert, raising slightly more than last year's net total.

Oakley is currently running for Pasco County Commission, District 1. A guest at the luncheon asked Oakley if he would continue to hold the concert even if he won office.

"I'm not planning on stopping anything I've been doing," Oakley responded. "I'm thankful for all of the benefactors ... all of that money goes back into the community."

Members of each recipient group took turns introducing their organization's work to Kiwanis, and thanked Oakley for the donations, which will help continue their work throughout the county.

The 2016 Fall Family Fishing Festival will return to Withlacoochee River Park on Nov. 5 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. rain or shine. This fun-filled event is designed to introduce families to the outdoors, the sport of fishing, and the importance of being good stewards of Florida's freshwater ecosystems. Made possible by the Pasco County Parks, Recreation, and Natural Resources Department; the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission; and Fish Florida, this annual event is free to the entire community.

"Detaching from modern technologies and engaging in quality family time in the vast outdoors – that is what this event is all about," said Kimberly Miller, Recreation Leader II.

Hands-on activities including fishing in the pristine waters of the Withlacoochee River, wildlife encounters, learning stations, and carnival games will be available for everyone to enjoy. There will be a free rod/reel for the first 250 participants, gift raffles, a nutritious lunch, face painting, crafts and many other attractions – all at no cost to residents. More information on fishing and boating in Florida can be found at www.myfwc.com.
