

They're Better Together

Former Foes Combine To Beat West Team

by Dave Walters

Players from Zephyrhills, Pasco and Zephyrhills Christian played key roles in the East squad's 17-14 win against the West in the Pasco County All-Star Football Game on Dec. 7.

Pasco brought five players to the party. Flying the Pirate flag were Cody Mercer, Cameron Smith, Ben Hooks, Zack Williams and Cameron Craig.

"This week was amazing," said senior linebacker Smith. "They are an electrifying group of guys. All of these guys are so exciting and fun. We were super competitive during the season and now we were super competitive together and it paid off."

Bulldog defensive lineman Kameron Allen, who spent most of the night stuffing the West squad's running game, was named MVP in the game, which was presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

"It was crazy, I thought others deserved it, but I had a pretty good game," said Allen. "It was great to come

Lake Jovita Event Raises Money For Sunrise of Pasco

Story and photos by Sam Newlon

Despite the wet conditions and the temperature in the 40s, more than 100 runners gathered for the 11th annual Lake Jovita Reindeer Run to benefit Sunrise of Pasco County on Saturday.

The event has been a family friendly run since its inception and the ages of the racers this year ranged from 5 to 70 years old. Some participants embrace the holiday spirit by dressing up in festive costumes and runners could be seen wearing reindeer antler headbands and heard running with jingle bells.

The race circles Lake Jovita's south golf course in the gated community off State Road 52. Racers started at the clubhouse and finished next to the putting green.

The overall winner of was Samuel McBride, a cross-country runner for Leto

Pirates Lose One To Rival

Fast Start Gives Zephyrhills The Edge

Story and photos by Dave Walters

Zephyrhills jumped out to a 12-2 lead to start the game and never looked back taking down rival Pasco 52-44 at home Friday night.

The Bulldogs led from the opening tip to the ending buzzer to improve to 3-1 on the season, paced by Derico Quiles with 14 points. Anthony Antoine added 13 and Cartrell Strong accounted for 10 points.

The Bulldogs held a 15-6 advantage after the opening quarter and stretched that lead to 23-12 at the half.

Zephyrhills kept the Pirates at bay and continued to have a 10-point lead, 33-23 at the end of the third. The Pirates didn't go quietly as they closed the gap to 33-29 with 6:20 to play and were down 47-44 with 1:17 on the clock.

But the Bulldogs went on a 5-0 run to close out the game for the win.

Pirate Rony Webster had a team-high 14 points and 11 rebounds and Jayden Baxter added nine points and 12 rebounds. With the loss, the Pirates dropped to 2-4 on the young season.

Surrounded by four Bulldog defenders Roney Webster surges for a layup against Zephyrhills on Friday night.

Pasco senior Ronald Hambrick looks for running room on the court during the 9-Mile War game hosted by Zephyrhills last Friday.

"I think the guys have to start believing," said Pasco first-year head coach Tellis Scott. "We have a team that is good enough to beat them (Zephyrhills). We need to come out here with fire right off the bat. We have the athletes to do well. They need to catch on quick. If they do, we'll be fine."

For Zephyrhills coach Mike Novak, the big lead to start the game wasn't a reason to slow down.

"It was like we were sleepwalking out there," Novak said. "You see leads like that in a lot of games and kids think it's easy. The next thing you know you let down a little bit and the other team is right back in it."

"It's a rivalry game. When it comes to this game, it's more than physical play, it's mental as well."

The Pirates and Bulldogs rekindle their 9-Mile War on Jan. 19 in Dade City.

"Hopefully, the next time we see them, we can take them down," Scott said. "It is a big deal. Next time we'll get them in our house. I'm pretty sure we'll do some damage."

While waiting for the rematch, Bulldog Myles Carter is cherishing another 9-Mile War victory.

"It's fun," said Carter. "It's like football all over again. Having bragging rights to beat Pasco in every sport I play is fun. Everybody knew it was the 9-Mile War and we had to come out and contribute and get the win."

High School in Tampa. The 14-year-old was training separate from his team to improve his personal time.

Another young racer, 11-year-old Jason Alonso, crossed the finish line in third place overall. His family was cheering him on as he made the final turn to the end and embraced him as he finished the race. When his father asked him if he saw his time, Alonso responded, "I wasn't looking at the time, I was looking at you guys."

For more than a decade the Reindeer Run has effectively raised money for local charities and non-profits while encouraging members of the community to get into the holiday spirit. It was unknown at press time the amount of money raised from this year's event.

Zephyrhills Wins At Free Throw Line

Girls Basketball ‘War’ A Close Contest

by Vincent Pensabene

The 9-Mile War has had some classic games go down to the wire and last Friday’s girls basketball game will be added to that list.

The visiting Lady Bulldogs (2-5) snatched one away from the Pirates, 37-35, as Paige Johnson sunk two free throws late in the game to provide the difference.

The score at halftime looked like a football game as Pasco (1-4) was leading 13-7, but both offenses picked up in the second half. Senior guard Kiara Broner scored 10 of her game-high 17 points in the second half for the Pirates, but picked up her fifth foul late in the fourth quarter. Chelsea Jones led all Bulldogs with 10 points.

The Pirates were drawing fouls and heading to the free throw line but were unable to convert on a high percentage of their opportunities, shooting just 11 of 21 from the line.

“I’m always concerned about our free throws, games are won and lost at the free throw line. If we make three more free throws, the game has a different outcome,” said Pasco coach Willie Broner. “I was impressed with how my team continued to battle despite having two starters not play and having an issue controlling the ball. I enjoyed this game despite the result, a true classic rivalry game in the 9-Mile War.”

“I told them at halftime that we are either down 2 threes or 3 twos. Our offense was sputtering and we need to continue getting fast-break opportunities,” said Zephyrhills coach Dale Palmer. “Our team is young, we have no seniors. So for Paige to be able to keep control of the situation is important.”

The Bulldogs continue their season by travelling to Gulf High School tonight to take on the Buccaneers (4-3), while the Pirates are also traveling tonight to take on the Wesley Chapel Wildcats (2-4).

out and put on a show for the community while representing my team. The East teams now have the bragging rights as the best in the county.”

Zephyrhills running back Elijah Thomas took a handoff from fellow Bulldog Charles Harrison III and dashed 51 yards for what turned out to be the decisive touchdown giving the East its second win in the three meetings between these two all-star squads.

“I saw a straight line to the end zone,” said Thomas, who was named offensive MVP. “My team needed it and they set up the blocks. We didn’t want to walk out with a loss. This has been a great experience to be part of with this group of guys.”

Bulldog linebacker Zac Masci made his presence known with a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and an interception for the East squad.

Zephyrhills was represented by Allen, Harrison, Thomas, Masci, Myles Carter, Sterlin Williams and Cameron Tucker.

“Our kids played very well on defense and took off on some long runs on offense,” said Zephyrhills coach Nick Carroll, who called the offensive plays. “It’s always good when you represent Zephyrhills in such a good way.”

Zephyrhills Christian Academy reached the Class 2A playoffs this season with a young squad, but had talented seniors making an impact as Pasco County All Stars.

“It has been a good opportunity to compete,” said ZCA running back Dwight Thomas. “These guys on this team are brothers. We come from different schools and we came together as brothers.”

“It was very important for us to bring the win back to the East side.”

Warrior linebacker Alonzo Sampson was named Defensive MVP for his work shutting down the West offensive efforts.

Wesley Chapel’s Chaz Neal, who

Ben Hooks of Pasco lines up to block for Zephyrhills quarterback Charles Harrison III in the Pasco County East-West All-Star Game presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. scooped up a fumble and returned it for a touchdown, was named defensive line MVP and Anclote’s Noah Williams won the offensive line MVP honor.

Unique Sedan, Truck Shine At Show

About 120 Vehicles Displayed Dec. 2

Story and photos by Joe Potter

Attendance at the Dec. 2 Dade City Car Show was down slightly from last month's, which was the best attended since the event's format was changed in September.

About 120 cars, trucks and motorcycles of varying models and ages were shown under cloudy skies that hinted of rain.

A 1953 Ford C-500 that Wayne Trent drove over from Hudson drew quite a crowd.

Trent has owned the unique truck for 15 years and spent three years restoring it.

A wrecked fire truck in Canada supplied Trent with its 8.3-liter Cummins Turbo diesel engine and transmission.

The cab came from Kansas City and Trent acquired a sleeper compartment for the truck from Louisiana.

He uses the truck, which now has more than 300,000 miles on it, on a regular basis to transport boats.

A 1953 Ford Custom four-door sedan belonging to Harold and Laura Turner also captured some attention. Turner bought the sedan three years ago and replaced its original 110-horsepower 239-cubic-inch flathead V-8 with a 250-horsepower 302-cubic-inch overhead valve V-8, which came from a 1972 Ford. The Custom has a modern Ford C-6 automatic transmission.

Turner, who operates Zephyrhills Auto Repair near the airport, said he uses the Custom for his daily driver.

An assortment of modern and vintage muscle cars was displayed including Plymouth Barracudas and Furs from the 1960s and '70s, and Dodge Chargers and Challengers from the mid- to late 2000s.

There was also a good representation of Ford and General Motors products ranging from classic street rods to late model Mustangs and Corvettes.

One person had a 1953 Hudson J at the show while another had an early model Crosley station wagon.

A disc jockey spun some discs with different types of music to entertain those attending the event.

Area businesses and restaurants stayed open during the show so those attending could do some early Christmas shopping or get a bite to eat.

Several people stopped to look at this sports car that was displayed on Dec. 2.

Pets of the Week

DAISY

Daisy is a 4.5-year-old Black Mouth Cur mix. Her favorite thing to is cuddle up. She is heartworm positive but this is a treatable condition. She can be shy of new dogs, cats and children. She will need a patient family that can help her through her fears.

MOMMA B

Momma B is a sweet girl. She had a litter of kittens while she has been with us and spent some time in foster. Momma is now spayed, microchipped, vaccinated and looking for her forever home.
