Boys Streak On Hold After Pummeling Pasco

by Dave Walters

The 9-Mile War on the basketball court took some odd bounces Friday night as Zephyrhills rolled over Pasco 72-43.

Zephyrhills was the home team, but the win fails to count towards the Bulldogs lengthy 24-game home winning streak because Friday's home game wasn't on the home court.

The 9-Mile War was an extra half-mile longer when the game had to be moved to Stewart Middle School because a backboard at the ZHS gym was shattered during practice from a dunk by senior center Kurt Robbins.

After losing a pair of games on the road last week, the Bulldogs came back with something to prove against their rival.

Drewan Clark led Zephyrhills with 21 points including 13 in the second half. He added five rebounds, three assists and a pair of steals.

"It's great to get one against Pasco," Clark said. "It is another 'W'

Sims To Play For Naval Academy

Story and photos by Dave Walters

Following a season of uncertainty, Zephyrhills High School football standout Antwione Sims has taken a giant step toward the future.

The Bulldog running back, who rushed for 2,207 yards and 27 touchdowns on 154 carries during the 2015 season, has verbally committed to play football at the United States Naval Academy.

After sitting out the 2016 season with an ACL injury, Sims was still receiving offers from colleges including Navy, Boston College, South Dakota, North Dakota State and Bryant University. He played representing the East in the Pasco County All-Star Game last month.

Sims took an official visit to Annapolis, Md., to the Naval Academy last weekend and made up his mind that he was going to become a Midshipman.

“Once I learned more about, that was it,” Sims said. “There are so many benefits for me after football. You have to look long-term. It’s a win-win situation for me.”

There isn’t a day that goes by where he isn’t asked about his college choice. Getting the decision done allows him to relax.

“It feels great to have it done,” Sims said. “It feels great to end it. I don’t have to be stressed out.”

Sims will sign his letter of intent on National Signing Day, which is Feb. 1.

Playing a big role in Sims’ recruitment process was former coach Reggie Roberts, who put the word out about his talented running back when he was a sophomore.

“Reggie has been very influential,” Sims said. “He helped me out and made sure I was alright. He started my recruiting. He kept me on top of things and made me a better person.”

The Midshipmen, under coach Ken Niumatalolo, are a run-dominated offense in finishing 9-5 last season in the American Athletic Conference. The Midshipmen scored a 28-27 win against Notre Dame. Louisiana Tech squeezed by the Midshipmen 48-45 in the 2016 Armed Forces Bowl.

added to the books. We had to come back and this was the game. We made a statement with this win. I felt we stepped up and got it done.”

Robbins more than made up for his glass shattering work as he cleaned the glass against the Pirates with 14 rebounds.

“Kurt and Dre were incredible,” said first-year coach Mike Novak. “We wore them down with our fast break and we didn’t turn the ball over. It was a good win.”

The Pirates were led by 11-point performances from senior Amin Smith and Rodney Webster.

“We came out decent, but Zephyrhills’ defense was more aggressive than ours,” said disappointed Pasco Coach Tony Webb. “It took us out of what we wanted to do offensively.

“It’s frustrating. We played them much better and tighter the first time.”

In JV action, the Pirates nearly took the Bulldogs out of the undefeated ranks, but Zephyrhills came back in the final seconds for a 40-39 win.

“It was a wild game,” said Zephyrhills coach Gene Clemons. “There were a lot of fouls and it got ugly. It’s always good to get a win and the kids felt good about it.”

The Zephyrhills Bulldogs honor the flag before last Friday’s game against rival Pasco High School.

Pasco Police League Collapses

Tax Issues Force A Restructure Of Organization

by Dave Walters

In an effort to restructure, the Zephyrhills Bulldogs Inc. organization of the Pasco Police Athletic League has disbanded and will return as the Wiregrass Lions in the upcoming season.

The Zephyrhills organization shut down amid issues that involve failure to file tax returns and filing others late, according to PPAL Executive Director Keith Morris.

He said Tuesday that arrangements are being made to rectify problems the organization has with the Internal Revenue Service.

Morris said players from the league are being encouraged to register to play for the Wiregrass Lions organization, which reportedly will hold practices at Wesley Chapel High School but still play games at Sam Pasco Park.

"It's a fresh new look," Morris said. "It will be the same equipment and some of the same people."

Morris said Pasco PAL has been looking to expand the Zephyrhills boundary to the Wiregrass area. A long-term plan calls for the Wiregrass team split into a separate Zephyrhills' team.

"We have so many kids in both areas that we were going to have to expand at one point," Morris said. "We're hoping the kids and parents register for the Lions. We all know this is all about the kids."

Zephyrhills will not be without youth football as the Zephyrhills Police Athletic League organization is alive and well, where it will continue to practice and play at Krusen Field in Zephyrhills. ZPAL has football, cheerleading and recently added basketball to the organization's list of sports.

Registration starts Feb. 1. Locations and times have not been determined. For more information, parents can look for updates at www.wiregrasslions.com.

Girls Basketball Seniors Honored

Zephyrhills seniors Katie Aspedon, Taylor Sands, Aliyah Wright and Captain Brianna Dupre were honored at their last home game against Anclote on Jan. 17, which the Bulldogs lost 73-37. The seniors walked on the court with their families and received gifts from their coaches and teammates.

Pasco Citizens' Academy Spring Program

Applications are being accepted for the sixth Pasco County Citizens' Academy. The Academy is a highly educational and entertaining program designed to share information about the services Pasco County provides to its residents.

The next Academy is set to start on March 2 and the class will graduate in May. Applications will be accepted through Feb. 10.

"This is a unique opportunity to learn more about local government and the successes and challenges our community faces on a routine basis," said Program Manager Paula Baracaldo. "We encourage our citizens to apply, participate and share with us how we can better serve our residents."

The program includes 12 sessions between March and May. Classes are held on Thursdays, tentatively, from 4-6:30 p.m. Citizens will learn many aspects of how County Government and the County's Constitutional Offices operate including: Overview of County Government, Emergency Management, Fire Rescue, Supervisor of Elections, Property Appraiser, Libraries, Sheriff, School Board, Parks and Recreation, Tax Collector, Planning and Development, Code Compliance, Community Services, and Public Works.

Rival Pasco Takes Version Of 9-Mile War

Story and photos by Jeff Hupp

Pasco (13-6) gave Zephyrhills no mercy Friday night by defeating the Bulldogs 52-23 at the Daniel McBeth Activities Center.

The Pirates jumped to an early lead in the first quarter 11-2 and never looked back totally dominating the Bulldogs in every facet of the game.

Pasco used a stingy defensive attack pressing the young Bulldogs (3-20) who could never muster any offensive continuity until late in the fourth quarter.

By the end of the second quarter, Pasco had outscored the Bulldogs 23-8 giving them a commanding lead going into halftime.

Leading the Bulldogs in scoring was Chelsea Jones who finished the game with 8 points followed by Kayla Robbins with 6.

Zephyrhills' Taylor Sands (10) shoots a free throw during the Bulldog's match against Pasco last week.

Girls Weightlifting Team Seeks Top 'Dog Status

by Dave Walters

The Zephyrhills High School Lady Bulldogs weightlifting team is pumping their way into the school, and county, record books.

Last week, the Lady Bulldogs grabbed their highest finish in school history at the Class 1A Region 7 meet at River Ridge High School. The 11 lifters representing Zephyrhills pushed the team to a fourth-place finish overall behind champion River Ridge.

Jessica Guadarrama (183) and Abby Schaffer (UNL) captured region titles. Cassie Anthonio (169) finished runner-up and 101-pound Sarah First was third.

Guadarrama, Schaffer and First all qualified to compete at the FHSAA Class A State Finals at Belleview High School on Feb. 2.

"I couldn't be happier with those 11 I brought to regionals," said coach Joe

Rinaldo. "I'm so proud of each one of them."

Rinaldo, who has coached girls' weightlifting for a decade, had plenty to be proud of as Guadarrama broke her own clean and jerk school record by 10 pounds with a 175-pound lift.

Shaffer broke her own ZHS clean and jerk record with a 200-pound lift. It was the first time in the program's history that the 200-pound threshold was reached and it also surpassed the Pasco County girls' weightlifting record by five pounds.

The Lady Bulldog weightlifters have broken nine school records this season.

"I'd take this team against any of my best teams and they would beat them," he said.

Other Lady Bulldogs who made their mark at the regional meet with sixth place finishes were Savannah Sutton (110), Halee Karppe (129) and Cynthia Wilkes (UNL).

Bulldogs End Soccer Season With Loss

Quick Safety Message From The Mayor

Just a friendly, but important, reminder to our winter friends: Sixth Street south and Seventh Street north are "one way streets." Please be reminded.

Remember you CANNOT make a left turn from the right lane on a one way.

Many serious accidents have occurred because of left turns from the right lane. Let's all be aware and considerate on the roads. Welcome back, enjoy the mild winter and be safe.

East Pasco Writers Forum

The East Pasco Writers Forum now meets in the clubhouse of Country Aire Manor, a mobile home retirement community located at 10249 U.S. 98 in Dade City. Thanks to Marjorie Nanian and her family for making the clubhouse available to us.

The writers critique group meets every second Thursday morning of each month at 10 a.m. The next meeting will be Feb. 9. Meetings are divided into three sections: the first section for critiques of original works brought by members and visitors, the second section for critiques of the voluntary monthly writing assignment, and the final section, reserved for a lesson designed to help members and visitors improve their craft. Meetings last between two and three hours. Lynn Merrell, a published writer and editor, leads the group. Call Merrell at (352) 583-0041 for more information or directions to the clubhouse.

Phyllis Burrows

BURROWS, Phyllis, 85, died Jan. 10, 2017. Services were held Jan. 20 at Whitfield Funeral Home.

Juanita Clevenger

CLEVENGER, Juanita, 86, died Jan. 10, 2017. Services were held Jan. 17 at Whitfield Funeral Home. Interment followed at Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell.

Marsha Ann Hodges (Crowley)

(CROWLEY), Marsha Ann Hodges, 68, of Hot Springs, Ark., and Glendale, Ariz., passed away peacefully on Jan. 19, 2017, at her daughter's home in Lutz, surrounded by her children after a short battle with cancer. Marsha, all feisty 4', 8 (and 3/4)" of her, was a lifelong fan of Days of Our Lives and appreciated the scent of lavender roses and orange blossoms. She loved the outdoors, laying poolside, and snow crab legs. The embodiment of "dynamite comes in small packages," she lived to the fullest, eventually settling into a quiet life of spoiling her beloved dog, Sophie. Marsha was born on Nov. 15, 1948, to parents James and Bernice Hodges, in Rome, N.Y. She grew up as the youngest of three and attended the first graduating class of Dysart High School in 1966. Marsha was a graduate of Lamson Business College, and a dedicated employee of Embassy Suites Hotel in Hot Springs, Ark., for 12 years. Marsha is survived by her three children, son, Arthur D. Howard Jr. and wife Carolyn of Oceanside, Calif.; her daughter, Carrie L. (Sawyer) Thompson of Lutz; and her daughter, Christina A. Sawyer of Kathleen; her older brothers and their wives, James C. Jr. and Celia Hodges of Glendale, Ariz. and Robert and Mary Hodges of San Antonio, Texas; four grandchildren, Braden Howard, Tyler Thompson, Jacob Thompson and Hannah Scionti. She was preceded in death by her parents. A private celebration of Marsha's life will be held at a later date in Glendale, Ariz. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her honor to LifePath Hospice (a non-profit organization), 3010 Azelee St., Tampa, FL 33609, (813) 877-2200. Hodges Family Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Kenneth Kocher

KOCHER, Kenneth, 58, died Jan. 20, 2017. Services were held Jan. 24. Whitfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Scott Lakes

LAKES, Scott, 51, died Jan. 6, 2017. His wife, Amanda; three sons, Sinjin, Asher and Lucas; his mother, Myra Christman; and his father, Bill Lakes, survive him. Whitfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

James 'Jimmy' Lundy

LUNDY, James "Jimmy," 61, was born on March 28, 1955, in Philadelphia to Mary Bell McCall and Edward Lundy and was one of nine children. He moved to the little town of Zephyrhills in the 1990s. James went to be with the Lord on Dec. 31, 2016, following a prolonged illness. James' wonderful life of memories will forever be cherished in the lives of his children, Kevin Lundy, Falisha Lundy, Crystal Lundy and Sabrina Pisa. He is also survived by three siblings, Thelma Stevens, Robert McCall and Patricia Knotts, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and grandchildren. James was an outgoing, beautiful soul, and had such a great sense of humor that he could make even the grumpiest person laugh. He enjoyed chatting it up with family and friends. He loved technology and enjoyed fixing anything he could get his hand on. And you could always count on him munching on chocolate. Oh and pizza, don't forget the pizza. No matter whatever the situation was, he always made it better. The visitation and service was held at First Hispanic Church Disciples Of Christ on Jan. 21. His longtime friend, Pastor Riley, from Community Chapel Church of God, officiated. The family of James Lundy wishes to thank you all for your prayers at this special time. Hodges Family Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Elizabeth O'Dell

O'DELL, Elizabeth, 86, died Jan. 15, 2017. A daughter, Lorraine; four grandchildren; and other family members survive her. Whitfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Milton J. Paduk

PADUK, Milton J., died Jan. 18, 2017. A daughter, Mary Kerske, survives him. He was predeceased by his wife, Susanna. Whitfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

John F. Shifley

SHIFLEY, John F., 77, of Zephyrhills, formerly of Galion, Ohio, passed away to be with the Lord on Jan. 14, 2017, at Gulfside Hospice in Zephyrhills after a brief illness with his family by his side. Born July 13, 1939, in Galion, Ohio, he was the son of the late Carl M. and Eleanor M. (Whiteamire) Shifley. He was also preceded in death by his sister, Gloria Shifley. He married his high school sweetheart, Betty J. Severns, in 1960. They have been inseparable since. John retired from Perfection Cobey when the company moved out of state. He began a second career with GCS Air Service in Galion as a freight truck driver. He retired a second time in 2004 and moved to Zephyrhills to enjoy the sunshine. He enjoyed spending time with his family and watching his favorite team, The Ohio State University Buckeyes. He enjoyed motorsports and was a regular at the former Mansfield Raceway among other local racetracks. He was a member of the former car club in Galion, known as the "Shifters." His pride and joy was a black 1957 Chevrolet 210. Other interests were Bluegrass/Gospel music and the steel guitar playing of Little Roy Wiggins. He was a member of The First United Church of Christ in Galion. Surviving are his wife, Betty J. Shifley; sons, Steven (Sarah) Shifley, Rick (Deborah) Shifley of Florida; former daughter-in-law, Stephanie Shifley (Whites) of Galion; sister, Barbara Perkins of Mansfield, Ohio; brother, Larry (Mary) Shifley of Galion; two grandchildren, Christopher (Lydia) Shifley and Scot Shifley of Galion; one great-grandchild, Cameron Alexander Shifley of Galion, whom he adored; nieces Lynda (Steve) Eidt and Susan Shifley; and numerous great nieces and nephews. There will be no services. Memorial contributions may be made to the angels who provided his care at Gulfside Hospice 5760 Dean Dairy Road, Zephyrhills, FL 33542.

John A. Williams Jr.

WILLIAMS, John A. Jr., 80, died Jan. 12, 2017. His wife, Barbara M. Williams, and loving family members survive him. Whitfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
