With Added Muscle, Bulldogs Keep Streak Alive

Aliza Quiles (5) added 17 points to the board during Zephyrhills' season opening win against Fivay last week.

The last time the Zephyrhills boys' basketball team lost on its home court was nearly two years ago to Fivay.

And since Jan. 30, 2015, the Bulldogs have rattled off 13 straight home wins including an 87-45 season opening win last week against, ironically, Fivay.

Physical power was on display with four thunderous dunks – two from Kurt Robbins and two from freshman Harrison Barker.

Robbins led the way for the Bulldogs with 20 points and Aliza Quiles added 17. Also in double figures were Barker with 12 and Tre'pavis Mobley had 10.

"It's great that we got everybody in the game and you can see the comradery on the bench and that's what we've been looking for," said first-year head coach Mike Novak. "It will be a lot harder from here on out, that's for sure."

The Bulldogs roster got a boost this week with additions of members of the football team on the court.

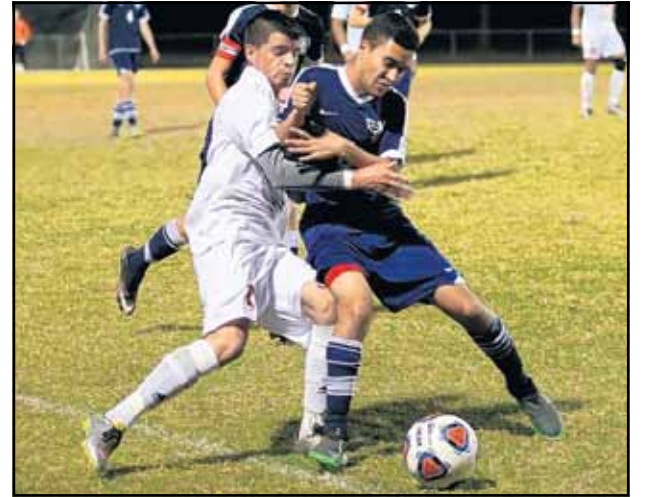

"They haven't practiced a lot, but their intensity is what we needed," Novak added. "They add a lot to what we have out there."

Senior Judgement Glass is happy to see the football players as well.

"I'm grateful," Glass said. "I get more of break now. We have guys we can sub into the game. We have fun."

Robbins, who played on the Bulldogs state Final Four team of a year ago, has been a big part of that home winning streak.

Springstead Drives Past Zephyrhills

by Keri McAlpine

The Zephyrhills High School boys' soccer team lost Monday night's match against Springstead 5-1. By the end of the first half, Zephyrhills was trailing behind Springstead 1-0. The Bulldogs got on the board when senior Erick Cervantes-Vega scored a goal, with an assist from sophomore Daniel Chacon.

Even though the Bulldogs were able to get on the board in the second half, Springstead charged ahead,

Local Shuffleboard Players Shine

November Yields Plenty Of Winners

Submitted by Earl Ball

Zephyrhills' top two mixed Shuffleboard teams – Henry Strong and Glenda Brake along with Earl Ball and Lina Marshman – traveled to Melbourne to play in the Florida Shuffleboard Association State Mixed Championship and wound up playing each other for supremacy.

Strong and Brake prevailed on Nov. 14, as both Ball and Marshman missed game-winning hammers in the first game. After they couldn't close out the game, Strong shot two of Ball's discs in the kitchen, putting them in a hole they could not overcome. In the second game they threw dirt in the hole insuring victory. Ball and Marshman fell into a hornet's nest forcing them to take out some of the game's best, but Strong and Brake played a top team to make the finals.

District Pro Draw Championship at Winter Haven on Nov. 18. It was a hard-fought tournament with Armstrong saving the day in the semis by scoring 25 points on her opponent's hammer late in the game to give them the lead. Ruess scored his first kitchen of the tournament in the next frame to put the game on ice. In the final game, Ruess scored his second kitchen in the last frame to put the game and championship out of reach. It was Armstrong's first Championship in a Florida tournament and she danced a jig and sang a jingle as the crowd roared in approval.

Zephyrhills Pair Take Mixed Championship In Shocker

Second-year Pro Gary McGaffey and District Amateur Sharon Henderson, both of the Zephyrhills Shuffleboard Club, shocked the Florida State Shuffleboard Association world on Nov. 23 by winning the Pre-Thanksgiving Mixed Championship in Lakeland.

The world's best players gravitate to Florida in winter to play the pro circuit against the best. In the finals McGaffey and Henderson whipped Henry Strong and Glenda Brake who were trying to repeat last's year's win. Brake tried to win the first game trailing 71-65 by shooting a 10 for game point but went long. McGaffey then won it with the next hammer. The championship game was won with a late flurry as Henderson came up with an 18-point frame, turning a losing effort into the opportunity to ice the game, which McGaffey did with a frame of 15 and 10 off-putting Strong and Brake too far back to recover. McGaffey and Henderson lost only one game – a nail-biting semifinal match won by one disc on McGaffey's last hammer.

Gary McGaffey

Sharon Henderson

Henderson earned the option to become an instant Pro or to move up one level to State Amateur. She opted for State Am, allowing her to honor commitments to players she is scheduled to play with. She is one more impressive Zephyrhills Amateur.

Saari/Bolivard

Win Amateur Championship

Zephyrhills hosted the Florida Shuffleboard Association Amateur Championship at Winters Mobile Home Park on Nov. 17 and 18, and the hometown duo of Raimo Saari and Wilma Bolivard came out on top. The format was singles/mingles and both won all six of their games on the first day with different partners. As luck would have it they drew each other the second day and won the semis and the championship round without losing a game. They proved home court advantage does exist as both live in Winters Park.

Church Dinner A 'Gift'

First Presbyterian Hosts Dozens At Annual Meal

More than 150 people enjoyed a recent community dinner at First Presbyterian Church.

This is the fourth year the dinner has been provided, said the church's senior pastor, the Rev. Denise Lay.

People who arrived for the dinner were warmly greeted and ushered into the sanctuary at 5510 19th St., where they waited until it was time to be seated at a table in the fellowship hall.

A host of volunteers brought people their beverages and plates heaped high with food. The meal included turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, green beans, a roll, coffee, tea, punch and pumpkin pie for dessert.

The Nov. 20 dinner was held from 3 p.m. until the food was gone.

Only about 60 people attended when it was first held 2012 but the number has steadily increased each year, Lay said.

She said the community dinner was the church's gift to those who were going to be alone on Thanksgiving Day as well as for people who were unable to prepare their own holiday meal.

Lay, who became FPC's senior pastor in January, noted that First Presbyterian Church has been blessed and wanted to bless the community. She was ordained after graduating from Dubuque Theological Seminary in 2015 with a Master of Divinity degree. Lay had previously been director of Christian education at the Presbyterian Church of Inverness for 12 years.

Ministry church. Stephen Ministry congregations equip and empower lay caregivers – called Stephen Ministers – to provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care to people who are hurting.

The church also has a food pantry at 9:30 a.m. on the second Thursday of each month.

The church holds worship services on Sunday at 10 a.m.

Veterans Day Storytime

Marines from the Zephyrhills Marine Corps League, Detachment 1124, went to story time at Barnes and Noble in the Wiregrass Mall on Veterans Day to read patriotic stories. Service Of Remembrance Scheduled At Chapel Hill

A brief service will be held on Dec. 8 to encourage people who are grieving during the holidays.

The service will be held from 7-8 p.m. at the Chapel Mausoleum at Chapel Hill Gardens, 11531 U.S. 301, Dade City, said Keith Williams, who is general manager of Hodges Family Funeral Home.

"This is a time for us to let our families know that they are not alone," Williams said.

This will be the fifth year the service has been held at the Chapel Mausoleum.

Williams held similar services at other cemeteries where he has worked. Michael Hodges thought such a service was a good idea when Williams suggested it to him.

The services "have been very well received," Williams said.

Usually about 100 people attend the each year but the Chapel Mausoleum can seat up to 200 people.

The service lasts between 40 and 45 minutes and features holiday music and a speaker who has an encouraging message.

"If they feel lost and lonely it will give them a time of fellowship afterwards," Williams said.

Light refreshments, including coffee, punch and Christmas cookies will be served following the service.

Those planning on attending are asked to call (352) 567-5571 in advance.

Bethlehem Rises In Richland

Christmas 'Walk' Draws Thousands To Replica

by Joe Potter

The walls have been going up at Richland Baptist Church since October, but they aren't designed to keep anyone out.

The church at 40443 Stewart Road will use them to invite people to attend its annual three-day Walk Through Bethlehem program — a one-third-scale replica of the ancient city — that begins Dec. 9.

The 1,300 to 1,500 people who will visit this year will have as realistic an experience as possible thanks to the enormous efforts of the small Richland Baptist congregation, said the Rev. Mark Warren.

The pastor said it takes about 100 volunteers to host the event that takes place from 6-10 p.m. on Dec. 9 and 10, and 6-9 p.m. on Dec. 11.

Visitors will be taken on a guided tour during which they will see people portraying merchants, tax collectors, census takers, Roman soldiers and ordinary citizens. There will more than a dozen different shops in the market place. The shops that will be set up will be stalls that offer various wares, including vegetables, spices and fruit. Volunteers at other shops will offer to polish metal sheets and brass.

The residents and merchants of ancient Jerusalem will be excitedly talking about the much-anticipated birth of a savior in Jerusalem, which had less than 1,000 residents at the time of Christ's birth.

There will be a small synagogue featuring a rabbi instructing children. A manger scene around the corner will feature soft lighting falling on the faces of Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

The New Testament identifies Bethlehem as the birthplace of Jesus Christ, and the Richland church near Old Lakeland Highway has been recreating the blessed event for more than 20 years.

Bread was the main staple at this shop in a previous Walk Through Bethlehem.

The church didn't hold Walk Through Bethlehem last year, Warren said, because volunteers needed some time to rest and get ready for this year.

"It is our gift to the community," Warren said of the event.

There will be opportunities for people to talk to someone about their spiritual condition after finishing the Walk Through Bethlehem if they wish to do so, Warren said.

There is no charge to take the guided tour of the city. However, Warren said, people who want to may make a free-will offering to help cover expenses for this year's event.

Warren has been senior pastor at Richland Baptist for 2 1/2 years. Previously he was senior pastor at Westside Baptist Church in Zephyrhills.

More information about Walk Through Bethlehem may be obtained by calling (352) 567-2990, or by visiting the church's website at www.richlandbc.org.
